

25 Years of Scandinavian Studies at Vilnius University

Thursday, 25/5, 2017

16 00

Opening of the exhibition “Twenty five years of Scandinavian Studies in print and pictures”.
Presentation of the translation of Edda Snorra Sturlusonar by Rasa Ruseckienė.
(Speakers: R. Baranauskienė, A. Liberman, A. Gudiniavičius).

Venue: VU Central Library, Universiteto g. 3

Friday, 26/5, 2017

SYMPOSIUM

Venue: Aula Parva, VU Central Building, Universiteto g. 3

09 00 - 09 30

Opening

Welcome words by prof. Rimantas Jankauskas, Vice-Rector of Vilnius University

Welcome words by H.E. Ms. Maria Christina Lundqvist, Sweden's ambassador to Lithuania

Welcome words by prof. Meilutė Ramonienė, Dean of the Faculty of Philology

Welcome words by dr. Rasa Baranauskienė, Head of the Centre of Scandinavian Studies

09 30 - 10 30

Anatoly Liberman “A Modern View of the Medieval Mind”

10 30 - 11 00

Coffee break

11 00 - 12 00

Jurij Kusmenko “Har ett samiskt inflytande på nordiska språk varit möjligt? Indicier från populationsgenetik och demografi”

12 00 - 12 30

Loreta Vaicekauskienė. “Everybody wants to sound cool? Let's check whether Danish theory holds water in Lithuania”

12 30 - 13 30

Lunch break

13 30 - 14 15

Lasse Horne Kjældgaard “Anxiety and Social Security: Søren Kierkegaard and the Welfare State”

14 15 - 14 45

Rima Ciburevkinaitė “Når romanen nesten sprenger sine egne rammer. Heimdal. California av John Erik Riley og andre store norske romaner”

14 45 - 15 15

Ieva Steponavičiūtė „Teodoras Bieliackinas: Dreaming the Hammer Back“ (on the first Lithuanian translation of Thrymskviða).

18 00

Evening program and reception at the University Café

Our sponsors
and partners:

